NEMA Membership

• $4.7B revenue of total sales is attributed to Member-directed activities.

• 18 membership categories.

• 15,000 years of NEMA Members’ tenure.

Standards Development & Technical Expertise

News: NEMA’s Newsroom in Technical Library, including 68 new and updated articles published this year.

• Complete list of news and articles approved, and published in under one week.

• 85 technical experts working on standards and technical support across all industry sectors.

• 76 virtual training sessions with more than 11,000 NEMA members, products, code compliance, electrical safety, utility management, and efficiency.

• 21 common temporary workers at the NEMA standards committees.

• 84 common temporary workers at the NEMA standards committees.

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Business Intelligence

• Delivered over 100 webinars and training sessions.

• Published dozens of product rankings and technology forecasts.

• Published over 100 new standards.

• Published over 100 new standards.

• Published over 100 new standards.

• Published over 100 new standards.

• Published over 100 new standards.

• Published over 100 new standards.

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

Medical Imaging

• Achieved landmark appeal of Medical Device Tax

• Published & updated other documents in response to institutional changes, including new Councils: Railroad and Transportation Systems

• Contributed NEMA Section strategies to diversify NEMA product scopes

• Executed an analysis to pursue opportunities to enhance code adoption research and cost/benefit analysis

• Workforce development promotional toolkit and pre-apprenticeship program

• Resiliency technical guidance for building materials, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Launched new Councils: Medical Electronics, Additive Manufacturing, Communication, Additive Manufacturing, and Communication

• International Successes

• Achieved Medicare Coverage of Innovative Medical Devices Act

• Achieved final repeal of Medical Device User Fee Act

• Conducted 85 webinars with more than 10,000 attendees on NEMA Members’ strategies

• Published more than 350 new supplements to DICOM standards on medical imaging and remote worker policies

• Published more than 2,000 new articles on DICOM standards, code compliance, electrical safety, and electricians, including weekly webinar series

• Issued more than 100 new standards.

• Contributed over 12,000 NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA

• Published over 100 new standards.

Advocacy

• Published an Open Letter to Candidates for President and the 116th Congress urging them to focus on a pro-growth agenda by promoting policies to stimulate the economy and address the needs of American workers.

• Conducted NEMA Academy training webinars (available on-demand) to help Members improve their understanding of NEMA